The President's Corner – Marie Mitchell

Dear members,

During this unequivocally challenging time I believe we are fortunate to belong to this special sisterhood of AAUW. Yet each of us is experiencing truly unique circumstances as participants in this dreadful pandemic. It's natural for us to feel frightened for our loved ones, our neighbors, our community at large, and all the people that help us on a day-to-day basis. Particularly challenging is not knowing what's coming next.

Therefore, I think it's so important that we focus on how lucky we've been in our lives and how lucky we are now.

I know that for me, social distancing has been particularly challenging. I love going out, attending our meetings and interest groups. I also volunteer with the Assistance League of Redlands, and that is immensely gratifying. In addition, I have two young granddaughters, with whom I am usually able to visit several times a week, as well as my mom, who I visit daily at her assisted living facility. She is turning 100 in June! Sadly, her birthday celebration had to be canceled. I am sure many of you are also experiencing similar restrictions. Let's hope we only have to deal with these minor inconveniences.

Fortunately, in this age of technology, we are able to talk and text on our ever-present cell phones, and even Skype, allowing us to actually see each other while we speak!

Another blessing is how much yard work, cupboard cleaning, clothes sorting, vintage movie watching, and reading I've been free to do. As a Member of AAUW I also feel comforted by knowing that if I needed to reach out, somebody in this wonderful group would be there to help. I do want to reassure all our members that if you in fact do need something, call me, please... if I can't help, I know I will be able to find someone in AAUW who can!

Let's remember to wash your hands often! Stay home as much as possible, and if you do go out, please keep a safe distance between you and the other people around you. Finally, I hope this is over soon and that you and yours stay safe.

Sincerely your president,
Marie Mitchell

The 2020-21 Budget and New Officers Vote

The AAUW Redlands Branch Board voted by email to endorse the slate of officers for the 2020-21 year as presented by the Nominating Committee and passed a motion to send the slate to the membership for a vote. The board also met in a Zoom board meeting on April 13th and voted to approve the 2020-21 budget as presented by the Budget Committee. The slate of officers was presented in the April newsletter and will be presented again in this May newsletter. The 2020-21 budget is also presented in this newsletter. Those who receive the May newsletter by mail will have included in it two ballots to vote on the slate of officers and the budget. Those who receive the May newsletter by email will receive two emails on May 1st with ballots for the slate of officers and the budget. Please return the mail ballots and the email ballots by May 5th.

The Board also voted by email to accept the resignation of Rosa Gomez as Vice President of Communications. Rosa had one more year to serve in a two-year term. In accordance with the Redlands AAUW Branch Bylaws, the Board, also in an email vote, agreed to appoint Priya Vedula to complete the final year of Rosa's term. The board would like to thank Rosa for her service this year.

The Redlands AAUW Branch Board will meet again by Zoom on May 11th at which time a decision will be made concerning our June branch meeting. If the membership has voted to approve the slate of officers, they will be installed at the June branch meeting. If the June branch meeting is cancelled, the new officers will be installed at a combined 2019-20 and 2020-21 Zoom branch board meeting on June 8th.

Award Spotlight: Congratulations to Denise Westcott

Denise Westcott received the Best in Watercolors Award at the Redlands Art Association's Multi-Media Mini Show in February. 92 artists submitted 168 pieces of art for this juried show, with the maximum size of 14.5" x 14.5". Denise's "Shimmering Dahlia" was 10" x 10". The jurist was Jennifer Frias, Director/Curator of the Begovich Gallery at Cal State, Fullerton.

After retiring in December 2018, Denise joined AAUW Redlands last September. She has been involved in our STEM initiatives as luncheon chair for the Redlands STEM conference and on the Tech Trek Selection Committee.

Denise has been a Librarian for most of her adult life, a librarian with a love of art. During her 20 years working overseas in Haiti and Guatemala, she fell in love with the local arts and crafts, and she and her husband supported many local artists. In 2006, Denise found her "dream job" as the Library Director of the Art Institute, which combined both of her loves, libraries and art.

If we are able to meet in June, please think of bringing a check or cash donation for our Family Service Back-to-School Project. We sincerely hope that RUSD students will be able to start their new school year in August, and supplying them with the necessary items will be more important than ever. Until then, stay well.

Redlands Bowl: Ushering

Again, this year AAUW will be afforded the honor of ushering for one performance of the Redlands Bowl and though many have already volunteered, we need more volunteers. We have not been assigned a specific date as of yet, but we do know that it will be for the musical that takes place July 23-26th. If you believe you'll be in town then, please call Barbara Simmons' home number and either let her know or leave a message that you would love to volunteer to usher for one evening. It is a lot of fun, and the musicals always draw a wonderful crowd. If people are interested in having a large group picnic before the event, the administration at the Bowl has indicated they have some tables that could be used with prior reservations.

College/University Partnership

NCCWSL Scholarship Awardees

Although we have selected two scholarship recipients to attend NCCWSL in May, 2020, AAUW and the University of Maryland have followed safe practices and postponed the 2020 Conference until May 2021. Both Jessica Lopez and Brooke McBay have indicated that they plan to attend in 2021 and are definitely looking forward to the event. This means that we won't be hearing from them until the fall of 2021, and that seems like a very long time! Both Brooke and Jessica live locally, and they are wrapping up their spring semester by working and studying from home. If you are interested in hearing a little bit from Jessica, tune in to the KVCR program "21st Century Dialogues," Episode 2, which is about women's history. Jessica is featured as one of three college students in conversation with three female community leaders. I found this on-line at video.empirenetwork.org.

Top 10 Ways AAUW Made the World Better for Women in 2019

Kimberly Churches

December 17, 2019

As 2019 draws to a close, I'm proud of our accomplishments this year: Whether it's through our training programs, respected research, fellowships and grants, or advocacy efforts around the country, we're making steady strides toward achieving economic security for all women.

Something else I'm proud of: The high level of involvement of our members and supporters, who give us the insights, inspiration and resources to move forward. I am honored to work alongside them and pleased to share some of our top successes in 2019.

With our members' help, this year AAUW has:

1. Trained women everywhere to "Work Smart."

Thanks to a $500,000 grant from The Coca-Cola Foundation, the largest corporate gift in AAUW history, we trained more than 102,000 women in salary-negotiation skills in 2019 through our Work Smart and Start Smart programs.

2. Empowered women leaders.

The grant from The Coca-Cola Foundation also enabled us to implement Empower, our new leadership development and networking event. This year, we hosted programs in Atlanta, Chicago, Charlotte, Boston, San Francisco and Washington, D.C. Empower is designed to help women explore their own leadership journeys.

3. Raised funds to advance our mission.

AAUW is thankful for our members across the country who gave their time and treasure to the organization, particularly AAUW Champions – individuals who give $5,000 or more to support our efforts – and branches that have given $5,000 or more. These gifts support our Greatest Needs Fund, which gives us the flexibility to respond to the most pressing gender-equity challenges. In addition, AAUW is proud to partner with many organizations, including alliantgroup, Arconic Foundation, BAE Systems, The Coca-Cola Foundation, GEICO, IE University, Junior League of Wichita, LinkedIn, Mooneen Lecce Giving Circle, Morgan Stanley, PPG Industries, Starbucks and the U.S. Secret Service.

4. Advocated for equity on Capitol Hill.

AAUW led the effort to pass the Paycheck Fairness Act in the House of Representatives last spring. And we delivered testimony to Congressional committees on the Equal Rights Amendment, LGBTQ anti-discrimination protections, and paid family leave, as well as sending letters to Congress in support of the Building Blocks of STEM ACT for women and girls and on ending workplace harassment.

5. Shifted the state legal landscape toward fair pay.

We also helped 11 states to pass equity legislation in 2019, nearly double the six states that passed such laws in 2018, 2017, 2016 and 2015. Nearly every state now has some form of equal-pay legislation in place.

6. Championed the next generation of women.

More than 800 young women from 307 colleges and universities gathered to learn and be inspired at the annual National Conference for College Women Student Leaders (NCCWSL), the country's premier leadership event for college students. Speakers included Dr. Tererai Trent, an AAUW 2001–02 International Fellow who is now a world-renowned scholar, humanitarian and educator recognized as Oprah Winfrey's favorite guest. The keynote was delivered by best-selling author and feminist Roxane Gay.

7. Produced groundbreaking research.

This year, we updated our hallmark study, The Simple Truth About the Gender Pay Gap, with new census data showing that women still only get about 82 cents for every dollar paid to men. In the latest version of our report Deeper in Debt, we showed that women now hold almost two-thirds of the country's $1.4-trillion student debt. And, in November, we released a new report, Limiting Our Livelihoods, indicating that sexual harassment can have long-term repercussions on women's health, economic security and access to leadership positions.

8. Provided millions in fellowships and grants.

For the 2019-20 academic year, AAUW awarded more than $4.3 million in fellowships and grants to 270 recipients to advance educational and professional opportunities for women around the globe. AAUW members have been so generous over the years that the organization now has sufficient funding to support fellows and grantees for the next 50 years!

9. Spread our message far and wide.

AAUW's work in 2019 was covered by more than 140 media outlets, including The New York Times, The Washington Post, National Public Radio, MSNBC, Time, Newsweek, Money, Fortune, The Oprah Magazine and more. We also raised our profile on social media platforms, garnering over 5 million impressions on Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn and Twitter.

10. Prepared for 2020—a pivotal year for women.

Next year, we'll commemorate the 100th anniversary of the 19th Amendment and the 55th anniversary of the Voting Rights Act by launching a project called "Every Voice. Every Vote." In keeping with its mission to advance equity, AAUW is committed to recognizing voting rights for women over the past century—including the fact that when the 19th Amendment was adopted, not all women earned the right to cast their ballots. It wasn't until 45 years later, when the Voting Rights Act of 1965 was passed, that women of color were granted the right to vote. Yet there are still challenges with voter access and voting suppression, which is why AAUW is focused on ensuring that everyone's vote counts.

You can read more about them and the election on the National Election page \(link below\) of our newly redesigned website, and all the information you need to cast your ballot is provided below.
